LC-GPO PROJECT NOW OPERATIONAL

The Library of Congress and the Government Printing Office Library have progressed from the planning to the operating phase of their project to work cooperatively in the development of name authorities. On October 3, a unit, which is located at the Library of Congress and attached to the English Language Section 2 of the Descriptive Cataloging Division, began to receive from GPO data for new name authorities being generated for use in the Monthly Catalog of U.S. Government Publications.

Catalogers at the GPO Library complete a worksheet for each heading submitted under the project. Information provided for each heading includes the AACR form of the name, citation of the way in which the name appeared in the publication, cross references if necessary, coding for each name to facilitate its conversion to machine-readable form, and a record of any additional research which was done in the formulation of the heading. The worksheets which GPO submits are compared with Library of Congress authority information, verified as to form of heading and cross references, and then entered into the Library's automated name authority file. The headings which are created by this process will serve as the beginning of a joint LC-GPO data base and are expected to be available to the library community as part of the Library's Name Authority Distribution Service when it becomes operational. Initially, the scope of the project has been limited to corporate body names.

Those currently working on the project are Suzanne Liggett and Frederick McDermott, Descriptive Cataloging Division. Kathy Rolke of GPO assisted them on detail during October 3-14, and Marion Miao is acting as liaison at the GPO Library.

Earlier accounts of this project appeared in the LC Information Bulletin for February 18 (pp. 118-119) and June 10 (pp. 377-378).

EMPLOYEE ART SHOW TO OPEN DECEMBER 11

The Seventh Annual LC Employee Art and Crafts Show will open Monday, December 12, in the Lower Level Gallery (central corridors of the Ground Floor), Library of Congress Building. The exhibit will run through December 26.

The Library staff is invited to preview the exhibit during a reception in the Whittall Pavilion on Sunday, December 11, from 2-5 p.m. Richard Klank, artist and professor of painting and coordinator of studio art, University of Maryland, will review the exhibit and speak on the content during a brief ceremony.

As in past years, the show brings together employees' works not previously exhibited at the Library that fall into the categories of fine arts, creative photography, or handcrafted items. More than 200 items have been entered in the 1977 exhibition, of which almost half are photographs. Ninety-eight employees are participating in the exhibit.

The annual display is cosponsored by the Library's Welfare and Recreation Association (WRA) and the Library of Congress Professional Association (LCPA). Coordinating this year's effort are Cheryl Mobley, Congressional Research Service, representing WRA, and Nancy Radford, Office of The Librarian, representing LCPA.

STRADIVARI MEMORIAL CONCERT SET

On Saturday evening, December 17, the Gertrude Clarke Whittall Foundation in the Library of Congress will sponsor its annual concert in memory of Antonio Stradivari, who died on December 18, 1737. The Juilliard String Quartet (Robert Mann and Earl Carlyss, violins; Samuel Rhodes, viola; and Joel Krosnick, violoncello) will perform Quartet in F minor, Op. 95 by Ludwig van Beethoven, Quartet No. 1 by Roger Sessions, and Quartet in D major, K.499 by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Members of the Quartet will be using Stradivari instruments presented to the Library of Congress by Gertrude Clarke Whittall in 1935-1936.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets will be distributed by Patrick Hayes, 1300 G St., N.W. (Campbell's), beginning at 8:30 a.m., Monday, December 12. A service charge of 25 cents is placed on each ticket, and only two tickets are distributed to an individual. Telephone reservations may be made on Monday morning by calling 393-4463. Mail orders are not accepted.

The program will be offered again on Sunday evening, December 18, to guests of the Gertrude Clarke Whittall Foundation. It will be broadcast by radio station WETA-FM at a later date, and made available to stations in other cities through the Katie and Walter Louchheim Fund in the Library of Congress.

SHEARING COMMENDED

AARON COPLAND HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

On Monday, November 14, the Library of Congress honored one of America's foremost composers, Aaron Copland, on the occasion of his 77th birthday. Mr. Copland's friends and colleagues and representatives of the Library staff gathered for luncheon in the Whittall Pavilion in a setting of musical treasures which are displayed there.

Mr. Copland has had a long association with the Library of Congress, from the commissioning and premiere performance of "Appalachian Spring" in 1944 to his conducting a portion of the September 29 concert to honor his teacher, Nadia Boulanger.

Following luncheon, guests reminisced about the composer's career and the proceedings were concluded with the presentation of a photograph of Mr. Copland made during a rehearsal for the Boulanger concert. In the photograph above, Mr. Copland accepts the gift from The Librarian of Congress Daniel J. Boorstin as Mrs. Harold Spivacke, widow of the former chief of the Library's Music Division, looks on.

CFC DRIVE EXCEEDS GOAL

Through the generosity of some 1,896 Library of Congress staff members and the efforts of department coordinators and keyworkers, the Library exceeded its Combined Federal Campaign goal of $100,000 by $8,340.55. Total staff contributions to the work of CFC voluntary agencies this year increased by 15.6 percent, compared to last year's donations of $93,592.50. The number of staff members contributing also increased this year and the average gift per individual amounted to $57.07. The final report is as follows:

	Amount	Percent of Goal	Percent of Employees
Administrative Department	$10,023.05	67.0	39.4
Congressional Research Service	25,120.50	96.2	42.0

STAFF NEWS

DEATH OF A FORMER STAFF MEMBER

Mary Alexander Abernethy, formerly senior assistant at the Charging Desk, Loan Division, and chief of the Periodicals Division in the Sunday Service, died at the Potomac Valley Nursing Home on Sunday, November 20. Appointed to the Catalogue Division in 1906, she was shortly afterwards transferred to the Reading Rooms, where she served as a deck attendant. In 1910, she started her service at the Charging Desk, then located at the Central Desk in the Main Reading Room. She assumed increasingly responsible duties in that unit and was appointed one of the principal assistants in 1916. Miss Abernethy brought to the position great presence, dignity, and a strong sense of duty.

As a cousin of the late Senator Robert Latham Owen, cosponsor of the bill which established the Legislative Reference Service, she frequently served as his hostess. She was familiar with official Washington and her remarkable memory and tact served her in good stead in her work at the Charging Desk when many Members selected their own books and presented them in person for charging.

Miss Abernethy, who retired in 1954 after nearly a half-century of Library service marked by a standard of excellence seldom achieved, was 91 at the time of her death. She is survived by a brother, Alexander T. Abernethy.

Graveside services were held at the Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

DEATH OF STAFF MEMBER

Sylvia Annette Harrison, senior descriptive cataloger, Descriptive Cataloging Division, died November 6 at George Washington University Hospital.

Miss Harrison, who was born in Midvale, Utah, grew up in Salt Lake City where she attended public schools. She attended the University of Vienna part-time between 1949 and 1953 when she was secretary to the civil air attaché at the American Embassy in Vienna, Austria. She received a B.A. degree in 1954 from Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minn., and pursued graduate studies at the University of Utah in 1956. She earned the M.L.S. degree at the University of California at Los Angeles in 1968.

Miss Harrison was employed by the Union Pacific Railroad Co. from 1954 to August 1960. For the next eight years she worked on the staff of the Rand Corp., Santa Monica Calif., first as a senior executive secretary and for the last four years as senior research aide. In October 1968, she joined the staff of the Library of Congress, where all of her service was in the Descriptive Cataloging Division. She was the author of two publications, The Problem of Privacy in the Computer Age: an Annotated Bibliography (Q180.A1R36 no. 5495) and Bibliography on Automation and Technological Change and Studies of the Future (AS36.R28 no. 3365) both published by the Rand Corp.

Annette Harrison received an outstanding performance rating in September and had great determination to remain active in her library career. Colleagues and friends were inspired by her unrelenting optimism and sense of humor during her serious illness.

Miss Harrison is survived by two sisters and two brothers. A memorial service was held at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Springfield, Va., on November 7. The funeral was held in Salt Lake City. The family suggests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the American Cancer Society.

AWARDS

Carl F. Cooper, an assistant editor of catalog publications, Catalog Publication Division, was presented a 25-year Federal Service Award pin on November 9 by Joseph H. Howard, director of the Processing Department.

Mr. Cooper is a graduate of Emory and Henry College. After serving with the United States Air Force, he joined the Library's Loan Division in September 1956. He was promoted from his position as an assistant book room attendant to a filing position with the former Catalog Maintenance Division of the Processing Department in 1962. He was reassigned in 1965 to the position of searcher-filer (editor) in what is now the Catalog Publication Division. There, after a number of other promotions, he was promoted to his present position in the National Union Catalog Publication Section last September.

Aileen Sundstrom, secretary, Central Services Division, was presented a 25-year Federal Service Award pin on October 31 by Edmond L. Applebaum, director of the Administrative Department.

A native of Willowbrook, Calif., Miss Sundstrom began her career with the Federal Government in 1952 as a secretary with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. During the next 14 years she worked for various Department of Defense agencies including the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Defense. While working as a supervisory procurement clerk and then secretary in the Defense Supply Agency she was awarded a Quality Salary Increase for her assistance during the transfer of a Navy office to the Defense Supply Agency.

Miss Sundstrom came to the Library in June 1966.

During the month of November, 13 Library of Congress employees completed 10 years of service and received Federal Service Award pins.

AUTHOR! AUTHOR!
Newsletters of American Authors, A Bibliography

Compiled by Judith Farley
Bibliography Section
General Reference and Bibliography Division

Devoted to the study of individual American authors and poets, the newsletters and journals listed below range from the exuberant hero worship exhibited by the contributors to ERB-Dom to the scholarly soundings of 19th-century American romantic literature by ESQ contributors. The societies and individuals responsible for these publications have in common a love for their subject authors and a commitment (amounting almost to proselytism in some instances) to sharing their enthusiasm with others. The publications variously include book reviews, hitherto unpublished manuscripts by the author, critical and biographical studies, desiderata, and notes and news.

Some, begun on a shoestring and flimsy paper, have evolved over a long publishing history into substantial journals. Others, although nursed lovingly by their creators, had only a brief life. The items designated by call numbers or the location symbol "N&CPR" are in the Library of Congress general collections or the Newspaper and Current Periodical Room, respectively. Those without a location were not found in the Library.
